

There are few issues more vital to the success of democracy than the ability of citizens to access and/or receive information from various points of view. Ownership of radio and television stations by only a few would directly threaten such access. Therefore, I urge you to release the actual and complete language of the bill change and then to permit public debate to take place before the vote.